PLANT TO HANDLE 75,000 AT LEAST, DECLARED NEED

Col. Johnson Proposes National Athletic Federation Take Up Project—Program of Wide Scope Is Adopted by Organization.

J EW YORK, December 30 .- A proposal that the National Amateur Athletic Federation undertake the erection of a great athletic stadium in Washington, seating 75,000 persons at least; was made by Col. Wait C. Johnson, U. S. A., a member of the federation's executive committee, at the meeting of the organization here. Col. Johnson visualized such a sadium as an ideal place for the historic Army-Navy foot ball contests, and suggested that periodically sectional fixtures in different branches of sport be staged at the capital. He said a suitable site for a modern amphitheater could be obtained on short notice, and urged that such a structure be erected as a monu-ment to the federation's national service in athletics.

Adopts Nation-Wide Program. Adoption of a program of nationwide recreational and athletic activities, designed to create physical preparedness among 28,000.000 boys and girls and young men and women, and creation of machinery to carry out these plans, were outstanding results of the meeting of the federation.

The federation's program will be initiated in 1923 through channels which include nearly a score of national organizations affiliated with it as constituent members, besides state and regional branches, now in process

Detroit in exchange for Southpaw Ray Francia.

In the official statistics Gagnen, who will be taken to Tampa as a candidate for the berth now filled by Roger Peckinpaugh, executed 114 putouts and handled 165 assists in 65 games with the Rochester club, to which he was farmed by the Tygera. His twenty-six errors gave him a fielding percentage of .873, which ranks him absolutely last in the field of twenty-two players who participated in fifteen or more games at abortatop during the season. Joe Boley of the Orioles was the leader with an average of .557.

Flyweight Titleholder, Conceding Much Weight, Has No Trouble in Winning, Although Most of Fans Expected His Defeat.

BY FAIR PLAY.

N EW YORK, December 30 .- There isn't any question today as to punching Pancho Villa, American flyweight titleholder, being one of the most serious contenders for the bantamweight title. Give Villa the weight and he would be able to show any of the bantams in the country that he must always be counted among the heir presumptives.

There were few of the 12,000 fans at Madison Square Garden last night who didn't expect Villa to get his, and get it good, from Terry Martin. The weights were announced as Villa, 111, and Martin, 11414, but the latter looked at least six pounds heavier. The advantage in weight was all that saved Martin from even a more ferocious beating than he got. Time after time, by sheer weight alone, he pushed Villa all around the ring, and each time, he was finally driven off by the furious slashing of the little fellow's walloping fists.
